PASTORS PAGE

Dear Saints with Strangely Warmed Hearts,

May 24, 1738 is an important date for Methodists. It marks the spiritual awakening that occurred within John Wesley as he attended a prayer meeting on Aldersgate Street in London during the evening. Charles Wesley, John's brother, had an experience the day before while in his sick bed. It was this experience which led to his writing "Where Shall My Wondering Soul Begin" (UMH #342).

John Wesley's experience is regarded as the beginning of the Methodist movement. His own account of the experience serves to best describe what happened:

"In the afternoon I was asked to go to St. Paul's Cathedral. The anthem was, 'Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord'... In the evening I went very unwillingly to a society in Aldersgate Street, where one was reading Luther's preface to the Epistle to the Romans. About a quarter before nine, while he was describing the change which God works in the heart through faith in Christ, I felt my heart strangely warmed. I felt I did trust in Christ, Christ alone for salvation: And an assurance was given me, that he had taken away my sins, even mine, and saved me from the law of sin and death."

Brothers and sisters, may we remember John Wesley's words of assurance. I pray your heart will be strangely warmed as we gather together in faith.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Suzanne

415 The Antepast of Heaven. L. M. 61.

WHERE shall my wondering soul begin?

How shall I all to heaven aspire?

A slave redeemed from death and sin,

A brand plucked from eternal fire,

How shall I equal triumphs raise,

Or sing my great Deliverer's praise?

2 O how shall I the goodness tell,

Father, which thou to me hast showed?

That I, a child of wrath and hell,

I should be called a child of God,

Should know, should feel my sins forgiven

Blest with this antepast of heaven.

3 And shall I slight my Father's love,

Or basely fear his gifts to own?

Unmindful of his favors prove?

Shall I, the hallowed cross to shun,

Refuse his righteousness to impart,

By hiding it within my heart?

4 No: though the ancient dragon rage,

And call forth all his hosts to war;

Though earth's self-righteous sons engage,

Them and their god alike I dare;

Jesus, the sinner's Friend, proclaim;

Jesus, to sinners still the same.

265

Charles Wesley.

For every quart of soup or baked good you bought at Thanksgiving or Valentines Day; and for all of your generous donations on Freedom Sunday, the IJM staff in Mumbai can show up every day for the most vulnerable in their communities - thank you. Through your prayer and support, you are empowering IJM to be the hands and feet of Jesus to victims of trafficking, and we couldn't do this work without you.

2018 Mumbai Impact Report

International Justice Mission
April 2019

Thank you for your partnership!

We are so grateful for your ongoing support in the fight for justice. You equip IJM teams to rescue girls and young women who were forced into the darkest corners of the modern sex trade, and you help them achieve God-given dignity and peace through restorative aftercare programs. Even more, you are helping build a future where all girls will be safe from this horrific abuse.

Your prayers and support were crucial for our team in Mumbai in 2018. Last year, you sent us to free dozens of victims from brothels, hotels and private homes where they were being sold for sex. Together we built the capacity of local law enforcement to protect the poor even without IJM's help, and we innovated new ways to help survivors access justice in their own communities with confidence again.

Our impact together in Mumbai, India:

RESCUE

We partnered with authorities to rescue 21 girls and young women from sex trafficking.

RESTORE

Our aftercare programs helped restore 17 survivors to health and wholeness.

RESTRAIN

We made sure 14 pimps, traffickers and other criminals were held accountable.

REPAIR

We trained 2,800 police, judges, church members and other leaders to combat slavery.

The Vacation Bible School Planning Committee is looking for more volunteers to help make this a very successful and rewarding VBS for the kids. We need people in all areas of operations, but have a special need in the area of decorations. Come bring your gifts and talents to the project to make ROAR a really epic event. Please talk with Curtis Osborne or Chris Kenny in person if you are interested or would like some more information. You can also email them at children@trinityfrederick.org.

GRADUATE RECOGNITION

If you have a student graduating from high school or college, please send their name, school they are graduating from, degree earned, and future plans to Pastor Suzanne at sjones@trinityfrederick.org by Monday, 5/20.

COMMUNITY LIVING PARTY

The Missions Team will be having their annual spring party for the Community Living residents on Thursday, May 16 at 4pm in the MPR. Community Living is an organization dedicated to serving persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities, enabling them to be happy, healthy, safe, and to LIVE LIFE! They do this by providing assisted living, opportunities for employment, and recreational activities. We need help setting up the room, assisting some residents in games, serving food, and cleaning up after. Any help would be appreciated. If you would like to help, please contact Laura at 301-788-0048 or yardwelk@aol.com.
