“In The Walk, Adam Hamilton focuses on five essential spiritual practices that are rooted in Jesus’ own walk with God and taught throughout the New Testament. Each of these practices is intended as part of our daily walk with Christ while also being an essential part of growing together in the church.

In each chapter, Hamilton explores one of these practices, its New Testament foundation, and what it looks like to pursue this practice daily in our personal life and together in the life of the church. Deepen your walk with Christ as we explore the five essential practices of worship, study, serving, giving, and bearing witness to our faith.”

This is the story of Pauli Murray, a report from Democracy Now on the documentary titled “My Name Is Pauli Murray” (36 minutes video). The report addresses how the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray is one of the most ignored, yet, pivotal figures in the struggle for racial and gender equality in the 20th century. Rev. Murray’s work influenced the likes of Ruth Bader Ginsburg and Thurgood Marshall.

This report features excerpts from “My Name is Pauli Murray,” which features new footage and audio recordings of Murray in her own words, and interviews about Murray with Ruth Bader Ginsburg (RBG) and Bishop Michael Curry, the Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church. The report is a conversation with the filmmaking team behind the documentary, director Betsy West and producer Julie Cohen. This is a powerful story on the history of yet another Saint of the Church - Dr. Pauli Murray has been canonized as a saint by the Episcopal Church (See: <https://today.duke.edu/2012/07/saintmurray>).

“How do we walk with Christ—daily follow him, grow in him, and faithfully serve him? In the Gospels, Jesus modeled for us the Christian spiritual life. The apostles taught it in their writings. And the Church has, through the last 2,000 years, sought to pursue this Christian spiritual life.”
