Seminary Graduation Announcement

Greetings Trinity family.

I know there are members of Trinity UMC who have been critical cheerleaders and prayer warriors over the last 6 years as I have worked to complete my M.Div. degree. Your presence has not been unnoticed or undervalued.

My official graduation is Monday, May 10 at 2pm at the National Cathedral. Because of COVID, attendance inside the cathedral is restricted to graduating students and faculty. A live link has been provided to students to share. I wanted to share this momentous occasion with you as I feel you have been a part of this journey with me. Thank you for having my back and encouraging me when times have been tough. It is certainly no obligation to attend but a recognition that I would not have gotten here without you.

Thank you kindly. And thank you again for your ongoing support. This is one achievement on my journey towards ordination.

Hope to be able to visit sometime soon.

Peace & blessings,

Kristin Weschler

Mother's DAY

So what do the 10 Commandments have to do with me today?

Pastor Mark to lead a Zoom-based Bible Study Mondays starting
May 17 ♦ 6 weeks ♦ 7-8pm

Join Pastor Mark as he leads the study, Words of Life: Jesus and the Promise of the Ten Commandments Today. Best-selling author Adam Hamilton brings modern eyes to the most famous set of rules in history, recovering the Ten Commandments as more than just a set of onerous prohibitions. He considers the commandments in their historical context, unpacking the meaning of each commandment in Hebrew, how Jesus reinterpreted them, and how Jews and Christians have understood them over the millennia. He also explores how the latest research in science and psychology illuminates these commandments, rightly understood as a way of ordering one's life beautifully in the present day. In a culture marked by workaholicism, materialism, and social media-driven envy, God has given us a time-tested path that leads to gratitude, confidence, and peace.
