The Religious Coalition will staff the shelter, but we are hoping that our Trinity Family will be able to provide meals for the families and help in other ways. The Impact of Prayer

Psalm 139:23-24

When we think about prayer, we frequently focus on what we want the Lord to do for us or others, but communing with Him also impacts us in spiritual ways that we may not realize. Scripture tells us to devote ourselves to prayer and to pray without ceasing (Col. 4:2; 1 Thess. 5:17). Continuous conversations with our heavenly Father are one of the means He uses to impact us personally.

Prayer changes us. As we seek the Lord and regularly spend time in His Word, we'll be transformed. Our desires will be replaced by His, and our thinking will align more closely with His thoughts. As our understanding of His character grows, we'll have a better idea of how to pray in accordance with His will.

Through prayer, we invite God to accomplish His work in us. While we can't alter a single divine plan or make the Lord change His mind, we can invite Him to alter us. In prayer, we submit to God's will, repent of sin, and ask Him to shape us into the image of His Son. And He will hear and answer this kind of prayer because it is exactly what He desires to do in each of us.
