

Wendy has been working with youth for many years. She has been teaching dance for more than 30 years, and became the youth minister for a United Methodist church in Poolesville in 2010. She served as youth minister for 5 1/2 years, and in the fall of 2015, graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary's Youth Ministry and Theology Certification Program. In the summer of 2014, she also took on the job as the Admissions Coordinator at Franklin Montessori Schools.

Many words can be used to describe Wendy: creative, outgoing, friendly, leader, kind, team player, encourager, funny, talkative, caring, and honest. Her gifts: creativity, teaching, compassion, organization, leadership, and a sense of humor. Most of all she has a love for Christ, a love for youth of all races, nationalities or backgrounds.
